

Describing the Wine

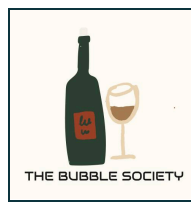

1. Bouquet
2. Aroma
3. Notes
4. Mouthfeel
5. Fruit
6. Flowers
7. Herbs
8. Umami
9. Acidity
10. Tannins
11. Dry
12. Finish
13. Balance
14. Body
15. Legs
16. Crisp - It feels like it cuts right through your palate in a good way. It doesn't linger like a Chardonnay.
17. Zesty
18. Tight
19. Fruit Forward
20. Expressive
21. Minerality
22. Textural
23. Clean - the flavor and texture, similar to crispy. But think more refreshing like H₂O

Winemaking Process

24. Perlage
25. Dosage

Label Information

26. Producer
27. Region
28. Vintage
29. Non Vintage
30. Varietal

31. Cuvee
32. Estate
33. Domaine
34. NM
35. RM

Sweetness Levels

36. Brut Nature
37. Brut
38. Extra Brut
39. Sec
40. Demi Sec

Glassware

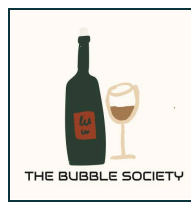

41. Stem
42. Bowl
43. Burgundy Glass
44. White Wine Glass
45. Universal Glass
46. Flute
47. Coupe
48. Stemless

Styles

49. Blanc de Blancs
50. Blanc de Noirs
51. Rose
52. Rose de Saignee

Types of Bubbles

53. Champagne
54. Cremant
55. Cava
56. Franciacorta
57. Lambrusco
58. Prosecco

- 59. Méthode Cap Classique (MCC)
- 60. Petillant Naturel (Pet-Nat)
- 61. Sekt
- 62. Sparkling Wine (U.S)
- 63. Asti-Spumante

Miscellaneous

- 64. Corked/ Flawed
- 65. Oxidized
- 66. House Bubbles
- 67. Porch Pounder/ Crushable - easy drinking, you know it's going to be good and go quickly. Perfect bottle to enjoy with friends. Think summertime, you're on the front porch and you just want to enjoy the breeze.
- 68. Breakfast Bubbles - It wakes up your palette, So it's a bit tart, has nice acidity and isn't too high of an ABV. Perfect for vacation. An alternative to a mimosa for those who are Bubbles purists.
- 69. Aged
- 70. Budget Banger - a great deal cost wise considering the taste. Think a $50 bottle that tastes like a $150 botte
- 71. Sommelier
- 72. A.B.V.
- 73. Linear - Describes the feeling of the wine. It doesn't really change or is very expressive. Very "one note" minimal differentiation
- 74. Round
- 75. Splash/ Taste - industry for giving you a sample of the wine you are considering buying
- 76. Blend - made from multiple grape varietals
- 77. Fizz
- 78. Fine Perlage
- 79. One Note -